In 1904, when Joe Gans could not make the lightweight limit, or at least refused to do so, Britt claimed the title and was recognized by many authorities as champion. His battle with Battling Nelson in 1905 was advertised as for the lightweight championship. Nelson won and then forced Gans into his famous match at Goldfield, Nev. Britt, after quitting the ring in 1909, took to the vaudeville stage and met with success.

*McCarty died 8 minutes after an apparently light blow had been delivered in a clinch. The coroner's jury decided that no blow had been responsible for McCarty's collapse, but that death was due to hemorrhage of brain, probably caused by a previous injury.

(McCarty claimed the heavyweight title during Jack Johnson's troubles with the U. S. Government and was admitted to be the best of all white hopes. There is little doubt that had McCarty lived he would have won the title.)

Leach Cross then retired from the ring and renewed his dental work in Hollywood, Cal., later erecting a beautiful apartment building, called the Cross Arms, in the heart of Hollywood, which he managed himself. In 1930, after he had lost all his money in the financial crash of the stock market, he came to New York and there resumed his dental practice and also worked for the boxing commission as a judge.

BILLY GARDNER

Born in County Clare, Ireland, 1881. One of the famous Gardner brothers who starred in New England bouts in the period between 1896 and 1908.

As a featherweight, Billy ranked high. He lost only 5 bouts in a total of 57, but engaged in 11 draw contests. Gardner was a hard hitter. He scored 22 knockouts and was stopped twice. He won 10 bouts via decisions.

Two of his best bouts were with Patsy Haley, who later became a New York leading referee and Jimmy Briggs. He won the decision in 12 rounds over Briggs and stopped Haley in the 14th round.

On October 9, 1902 he was stopped by Honey Mellody in the eleventh round and on July 12, the previous year he lost in 15 rounds to Kid Broad. Gardner won and drew in 15 round bouts with Austin Rice, an outstanding featherweight.

Dec. 19—Joe Giardello, New York ..... *L 10

*In the original official decision of the referee and judges, Giardello was awarded the verdict as follows: Judge Shortell, 7 rounds to 3 and 10 points to 4 for Graham; Judge Agnello, 6 rounds to 4 and 7 points to 4 for Giardello; Referee Miller, 5 rounds to 4 for Giardello and five points to each.

Commissioners Christenberry and Powell, after the decision was rendered, changed Joe Agnello's score card which resulted in awarding the verdict to Graham.

On Angello's score card, one extra point was awarded by the Commissioners to Graham in round four and the tenth round was taken from Giardello and given to Graham who also received two points in that round. Thus the score was changed to give Graham the official split decision on the basis of the revision of Agnello's card by the Commission to read, five rounds each with Graham ahead in points, 6 to 5, thereby reversing the original majority decision of the judges and referee.

When the case come before the State Supreme Court, Justice Botein ruled that the New York State Athletic Commission had no right to reverse the scorecard of the official and decided the actual decision to be the one originally given, in favor of Giardello.

JOE GRIM

(Saverio Giannone)

Born, Mar. 14, 1881, Monetello, Avellino, Italy. Weight, 130-165 lbs. Managed by Lew Bailey. Grim had one of the most remarkable records compiled by any fighter. He competed in more than 300 contests, from four to twenty rounds from 1902 to 1913 and during this time he was knocked out only three times though the greatest fighters of the day tried to accomplish this feat. He was floored more often than any other fighter, but because of his durability he always came up again fighting and asking for more punishment—truly an "Iron Man." He never kept a record, hence the impossibility to obtain all his bouts. Those listed here are the most complete ever conpiled. They are taken from press clippings and from records from whom he fought.

LEN HARVEY

Born—Helston, Cornwall, England, July 11, 1907. Began boxing as a bantamweight and competed in every division through the heavyweight class. Started career in 1920 and ended it following a knockout at the hands of Freddie Mills in the second round on June 20, 1942.

On November 22 of that year he resigned his British heavyweight title and retired to become physical instructor in the Royal Air Force. Following the war he became a pub owner.

Harvey held many titles in his rise to fistic fame. He first drew in a British welter championship match of 20 rounds with Harry Mason, April 29, 1926.

On May 10, 1929, he stopped Alec Ireland in the 7th round to win the British middleweight title. He retained the crown by defeating Jack Hood in 15 and engaging in a 15 round draw with Hood.

The following year he knocked out Steve McCall in 7 in a title bout and again drew in 15 with Hood in a middleweight title defense.

In 1931 he visited New York and lost three bouts in a row to, two to Vince Dundee, each in 12 rounds and the other to Ben Jeby in 12.

Returning to London, he beat Jock McAvoy in 15 in a title defense then lost to Marcel Thil in 15 in a bout advertised as for the N.B.A. and I.B.U. world middleweight crown.

On April 10, 1933 he lost the British middleweight title to Jock McAvoy in 15 after successfully defending it three months before against Jack Casey.

Harvey won the British light heavyweight title, June 12, 1932, when he gained the decision over Eddie Phillips in London, in 15 rounds. Then on November 30 of that year, he won the British heavyweight crown, defeating Jack Peterson in London, in 15 rounds.

On February 8, 1934, Harvey won the British and Empire heavyweight crown defeating Larry Gains in London, in 15 rounds.

On June 4, 1934, Peterson won the British and Empire heavyweight title by stopping Harvey in 12 rounds.

They fought again for that title on January 29, 1936, Harvey losing the decision in 15 rounds.

Harvey then decided to try for the world light heavyweight title and on November 9, 1936 he lost the decision in 15 rounds to John Henry Lewis, the champion. The following are his bouts in the last six years of his career:

Died

AURELIO HERRERA

Born—San Jose, California, June 17, 1876. Nationality—Mexican American. Height 5 feet 4½ inches. Weight—130 pounds.

Herrera was one of the outstanding Mexican born fighters. He started his career in 1898 and quit in 1909 after breaking his hand in a contest with Fighting Dick Hyland at Bakersfield, Cal., in the sixth round. The bout was scored as a knockout for Hyland.

Among the top ringmen the Mexican fought, was Terry McGovern who stopped him in a world feather weight championship match May 29, 1901, in the 5th round in San Francisco. He lost in 15 rounds to Abe Attell in Oakland, Oct. 15, 1902 and two weeks later, knocked out Abe's brother, Monte, in the third round.

He knocked out Kid Broad in 4; Eddie Santry in 13; drew in 6 with Benny Yanger and stopped Yanger in 8. He lost in 6 to Abe Attell; lost to Battling Nelson in 20; drew in 20 with Eddie Hanlon; beat Kid Goodman twice, in 15 rounds each and lost to Willie Fitzgerald in 12.

He fought five times with Charley Neary—twice he drew in six; drew in 10, knocked out Neary in 1 and in 7 rounds.

He engaged in 81 bouts. He scored 47 knockouts and won six bouts by decisions.

Herrera died in San Francisco, Cal., April 12, 1927.
